

Assignment - 15

1). what is your expectation from a Company's stock price, when the Company has consistently increased dividend in the past but has recently cut it down?

⇒. When a Company that has consistently increased dividends suddenly cuts them, it may signal financial distress or a shift in strategy.

⇒. Investors often react negatively, leading to a decline in the stock price due to reduced confidence in the Company's stability and future growth prospects.

